

Kraus-Anderson Insurance Once Again Receives Top 5 Broker Award

Kraus Anderson Insurance was selected to receive the Top 5 Broker Award at the Affinity Captive Group board meeting in Los Cabo Mexico January 14th 2011. Spokes person Tom Ullrich Principal/Executive Vice President with Captive Resources, LLC made the award during the closing dinner meeting for the Affinity Captive Group

The award honors insurance brokers based on the following criteria:

- Level of Client Retention
- Implementation of successful loss prevention programs with current clients.
- Loss Ratios of current clients.

Kraus Anderson Insurance, Vice President Mark Kampf said “we were delighted to once again pick up the Affinity Captive Group Top 5 Broker Award, which is recognition of the efforts and dedication of our skilled Captive Producer team. We have received this award two other times in the past, for program year 2006 and 2007.

Affinity Insurance Ltd.

Affinity, a heterogeneous group captive, emphasizes the philosophy that insurance is a manageable cost. Affinity shareholders benefits include: increased assurance of coverage, stabilization of premiums and improved management of risk through effective loss control.

Captive Resources

Captive Resources, LLC provides individual businesses, groups and associations the opportunity to control their insurance costs through the formation and management of group captives. Captive Resources, affiliated with many of the largest insurance providers, has clients across North America in a variety of industries.